good
Phenomenal. Carl is challenging, but so well informed and a natural-born instructor. I was surprised how proficient he was in helping me fully understand concepts, considering he is just a Graduate Student. His English is also completely fluent, and accent not that difficult to understand. I enjoyed taking a class with him!
I hope we can keep Carl at Vandy and not let him leave to go to Emory. We need more professors like him. He made a valiant effort and was extremely successful in lecturing in English, and I admired how he generally cared about us and our learning.

I really loved how this course was structured, and felt that I learned quite a lot. I am confident for my future econ classes now that I have a good background in Macroeconomics.

I loved it.
